Salem Press Announces the Newest Addition to the Popular Defining Documents series: Secrets, Leaks & Scandals

Defining Documents in American History: Secrets, Leaks & Scandals offers in-depth analysis of seventy-five speeches, memos, letters, reports, transcripts, minutes, and testimony related to some of the nation's most notorious scandals. The set begins with the letters of the nation's most infamous traitor, and continues through the 2018 executive order that resulted in the separation of families at the U.S./Mexico border.

These documents provide a full and engaging review of some of the more painful moments in American history to come to a better understanding of how these situations came about and how the nation grappled with the issues at the heart of these secrets, leaks, and scandals. The material is organized under six groups:

- Secrets, Conspiracies, and Scandals through the 19th Century begins with Benedict Arnold's letters offering to sell vital information about West Point to the British during the American Revolution and concludes with an editorial that demonstrates the role of "yellow journalism" in the conflict between Cuba and Spain;
- Controversies, Conflicts, and Communism through the mid-20th Century, the longest section of the book, begins with an excerpt from Upton Sinclair's The Jungle, which exposed the horrors of Chicago's meat-packing industry, includes a memo decrying FDR's "court packing plan," the infamous Executive Order 9066 that established internment camps for Japanese Americans during World War II, and excerpts from the Rosenbergs, and concludes with the report from the Warren Commission and a report related Lee Harvey Oswald's suspected Russian connections;
- Government in Hiding, from Vietnam to Watergate and After tells the story of a range of American conflicts, both internal and external, from the Watergate scandal to the escalation of the war in Viet Nam, and the Church Commission reports on foreign assassinations and domestic surveillance;
- Scandals, Scares, and Intelligence Failures in Recent Decades details the Able Archer episode, testimony by Anita Hill against Clarence Thomas during his confirmation hearings for the Supreme Court, and the reports of weapons of mass destruction that led to U.S. engagement in Iraq;

- Lies, Leaks, and Hacks in the Contemporary Period continues to unfold, even as this book goes to press, and covers such events as “fake news,” birtherism, and the Access Hollywood tape; and
- Selected Environmental Debacles starting with Rachel Carson’s clarion call in her book Silent Spring and including such disasters as the Exxon-Valdez oil spill, botched responses to Hurricane Katrina, and the Flint, Michigan, water crisis.

Each document is supported by a critical essay, written by historians and teachers, that includes a Summary Overview, Defining Moment, Author Biography, Document Analysis, and Essential Themes.
