

Critical Insights: The Inferno

Table of Contents

THE INFERNO, by Dante

About This Volume, by Patrick Hunt

The Book and Author

On the Inferno, by Patrick Hunt

Biography of Dante, by Patrick Hunt

The Paris Review Perspective, by Nicole Rudick for The Paris Review

Critical Contexts

The Love That Moves, by Robert Pogue Harrison

The Inferno from a Purgatorial (and Paradisiacal) Perspective, by Heather Webb

Dante's Inferno: Critical Reception and Influence, by David Lummus

Per lo 'nferno tuo nome si spande: Politics in the Infernal City, by Elizabeth Coggeshall

Critical Readings

The Moral System of the Commedia and the Seven Capital Sins, by Robert Hollander

Canto 1: The Dark Wood, by Wallace Fowlie

Aeneas and Dante, by David Thompson

Dante's Knowledge of Florentine History, by John C. Barnes

Nature's Revenge, by Francesca Guerra D'Antoni

Canto 4: Limbo (First Circle), by Wallace Fowlie

The Portrait of Francesca: Inferno V, by John Freccero

Echoes of Andromache in Inferno X, by Joseph Luzzi

Beginning to Think about Salò, by Gabrielle Lesperance

Dante's Monsters in the Inferno: Reimagining Classical to Christian Judgment,

by Patrick Hunt

Canto 11: The Plan of Hell, by Wallace Fowlie

The Harvest of Reading: Inferno 20, 24, 26, by Alison Cornish

Submerged Meanings in Dante's Similes (Inf. XXVII), by Richard H. Lansing

Inferno 27 and the Perversions of Pentecost, by Glending Olson

Resources

Chronology of Dante's Life

Works by Dante

Bibliography

About the Editor

About The Paris Review

Contributors

Acknowledgments

Index