

Critical Insights: Dracula

Table of Contents

DRACULA, by Bram Stoker

- About This Volume, by Jack Lynch

The Book and Author

- On Dracula, by Jack Lynch
- Biography of Bram Stoker, by Richard Means
- The Paris Review Perspective, by Juliet Lapidus

Critical Contexts

- Stoker's Dracula and the Vampire's Literary History, by Bridget M. Marshall
- A Look at the Critical Reception of Dracula, by Camille-Yvette Welsch
- Dracula and Victorian Anxieties, by Matthew J. Bolton
- Modernity and Anxiety in Bram Stoker's Dracula, by Allan Johnson

Critical Readings

- Recreating the World: The Sacred and the Profane in Bram Stoker's Dracula, by Beth E. McDonald
- The New Naturalism: Primal Screams in Abraham Stoker's Dracula, by Carrol L. Fry and Carla Edwards
- Dracula's Earnestness: Stoker's Debt to Wilde, by Samuel Lyndon Gladden
- Dracula: Righting Old Wrongs and Displacing New Fears, by Jimmie E. Cain, Jr.
- Vampires, Mummies, and Liberals: Questions of Character and Modernity, by David Glover
- Feminism, Fiction, and the Utopian Promise of Dracula, by Nancy Armstrong
- Racialization, Capitalism, and Aesthetics in Stoker's Dracula, by Patricia McKee

Resources

- Chronology of Bram Stoker's Life
- Works by Bram Stoker
- Bibliography
- About the Editor
- About The Paris Review
- Contributors
- Acknowledgments
- Index