

Critical Insights: The Fantastic

Table of Contents

Table of Contents

About This Volume
—Claire Whitehead

On the Fantastic
—Claire Whitehead

Critical Contexts

The Emergence and Evolution of the Fantastic
—David Sandner

Tolkien and the Fantasy Tradition
—Dimitra Fimi

Rethinking the Fantastic and Related Modes: New Perspectives from Spatial Theory
—Amaryll Chanady

The Haunted House in Modern American Horror Fiction
—Bernice Murphy

Critical Readings

Women Writers in the Haunted House of Fiction
—Lucie Armitt

E.T.A. Hoffmann and the Fantastic
—Birgit Röder

Prosper Mérimée's Playful Fantastic
—Peter Cogman

The Pedagogical Fantastic in Edgar Allan Poe and Vladimir Odoevsky
—Slobodan Sucur

Borges and the Fantastic
—Donald Shaw

Fictional World Polyphony and the Image of Modern Consciousness in Novels by Hermann Broch and Milan Kundera
—Tomáš Kubířek

Thomas Pynchon and the Contemporary Forms of the Fantastic
—Eugenio Bolongaro

Calvino, the Fairytale and Two Stories for Children
—Daniela De Pau

Marie NDiaye's Uncanny Realism
—Daisy Connon

Monsters of the Fantastic: Fusions of the Mythical and the Real
—Joseph Andriano

Resources

Additional Works on the Fantastic

Bibliography

Contributors

About the Editor

Index